Shook Him .- A city buck visited the Shakers dering through the village, encountered a stout specimen of the sect, and thus accosted him :

"Well, Broadbrim, are you much of a Shaker?"

At a recent lecture, Dr. Boynton related that wishing to explain to a little girl the manner in which the lobster casts its shell, when it has outgrown it, he said, "What do you do when you outgrow your clothes? You throw them aside, don' t you." "Oh, no!" replied the little one, "we let out the tucks !" The Doctor confessed she had the advantage of him there.

People who are jealous, or particularly careful of their own rights and dignity, always find enough of those who do not care for either, to keep them continually uncomfortable.
